COLLEGE DAY POLICY

College Day is an integral part of Thiruthangal Nadar College, which recognises, appreciates & celebrates the milestones of the college and accomplishments of the staff and the students through festivities, felicitation & feast. The faculty & students are recognised and appreciated for their varied exemplary performances.

- The event is planned by the college management and staff well ahead of time
- An organising committee is formed to plan the event.
- A master schedule is created that outlines the event's activities and responsibilities
- Responsibilities are delegated to an event team.
- The college's annual report is prepared
- The students are felicitated in the following categories: proficiency prize winners, centum holders, regular attendance, optimal user of the library, the best outgoing student - a boy and a girl.
- The faculty are felicitated on various grounds such as for producing centum results, centum holders and University Ranks, for regular attendance, and for presenting and publishing the maximum number of research papers and also for being the optimal user of the library.
- The Best Department is chosen based on varied parameters, and a rolling Trophy will be presented.
- The Management offers a token of appreciation to all the staff members on the College Day. The amount of Rs. 1000/- will be credited to their accounts for their dedicated service.
- The Teaching and Non-Teaching staff who have completed 10 years of service have been appreciated with a 10-gram silver coin. (If the staff has completed 9 years and 10 months and joined during June, it is considered as 10 years.)
- The Teaching & Non-Teaching Staff are provided with a Feast based on their preference vegetarian or non-vegetarian.
